

when a corporation such as Sinclair, can dictate to it's local affiliates that they MUST air a one-sided political propaganda film, days before an election, it is your responsibility to take action. Sinclair broadcasting uses public airwaves which belong to me and everyone else. There are clearly stated laws about public broadcasting in regards to elections and this action is breaking those laws. At the very least, they should be required to show another film depicting the opposite viewpoint, immediately following. This is yet another example of the dangers of media consolidation . The licensing process must be more rigorous.
